EPLEY GIVEN 7 DAYS TO CHANGE GOP PETITIONS

Clarence W. Epley, 100 Chambersburg street, candidate for Republican state committeeman from Adams county, was given seven days in which to have corrections made on his petition by Judge Walter R. Sohn in the Dauphin county court of common pleas, Harrisburg, Wednesday afternoon.

It was a brief session, lasting approximately ten minutes. No testimony was taken.

Objections to Mr. Epley's petition had been filed with the court by Edgar G. Shearer, Gettysburg R. 4, battlefield guide, through the law firm of McNeese, Wallace and Nulick of Harrisburg.

Terminating Mr. Epley's petition "defective, insufficient and invalid," Mr. Shearer cited these objections: That 16 signers did not state a residence in a borough or township; 37 others did not affix their street number or street and number, and four others were not registered Republicans.

2 Errors Amendable
When the case, one of ten similar ones before Judge Sohn Wednesday, was called, James Quigley, a member of the firm which represented Mr. Shearer, stipulated to the court that the first two errors cited in the objections were amendable.

"We are willing to agree that paragraphs 'A' and 'B' are amendable," Attorney Quigley told the court.

It also was admitted to the court that persons the objector contended originally were not registered Republican voters, were in fact registered. In two of the cases in contention, Attorney Quigley said the names of single women who have since married were involved. In another case, he said, the signature was found to be bona fide, but was not as written in county board of elections records by the signer.

To Correct Petition
Records of the registered voters of McSherrystown, where most of the signatures were obtained, were taken to Harrisburg by Clarence C. Smith, commissioners' clerk, but were not needed. Charles Ware, attorney for Mr. Epley, agreed to payment of costs by the respondent, his client, and the court dictated an order allowing Mr. Epley to make

Snowplow Stuck In Snow

Barnstable, Mass., Feb. 28 (AP)—The no-theater that piled up record snowfall on Cape Cod during the night also blew in a novel paradox—even snowplows were snowbound.

"Who's calling?" asked Police Lieutenant George Murphy, when a man reported a couple and child marooned in an automobile.

"I drive the state plow," said the caller.

"I drive that stateplow," said instructed.

"I can't," came the reply. "I'm stuck and so are two other plows."

CENTRALIZATION OF ENFORCEMENT DECRIED BY D. A.

"I hope and believe our citizens must realize that there is a growing tendency to centralize all government including law enforcement, which is a very unwholesome tendency," District Attorney Daniel E. Teeter told local law enforcement officials, police officers from various boroughs, burgesses and state police, gathered Wednesday night at a meeting held in the local fire engine house.

Teeter spoke at a meeting called to discuss the report of the state attorney general regarding the presence of slot machines in the county, and to discuss the problem of preventing minors from frequenting and obtaining alcoholic beverages at licensed premises. Plans to conduct investigations in all communities by local officials were announced at the meeting.

"This tendency toward centralization of law enforcement, if it continues unchecked, will ultimately lead to a breakdown in our complaint system of justice as well as add to the growing cost of government."

The district attorney urged increased use of local law enforcement agencies in townships and boroughs to "halt the trend toward centralization. If residents of a community are not going to call on their own local community law enforcement officials, but prefer instead to call only on county, and state, and perhaps ultimately federal government, there will eventually be excessive loose play and delays in law enforcement."

"I would urge all residents of the county to call first upon their local law enforcement agencies, their local police or burgesses, and to aid them by bringing to their attention cases of law violation, and by aiding them with all information and knowledge the individual might have. Where local law enforcement officers are unable to cope with a violation then the local law officials should call upon the state police and the district attorney. We will give you full cooperation in helping with problems of community enforcement. Our citizens should realize that the local enforcement officials need community support. Too many people complain of some violation but refuse in any way to cooperate by laying an information, or give any assistance.

"Failure of local residents to help local enforcement officers gives encouragement to those who are violating the law by giving the impression that the local communities do not care about the infractions."

FRAT WEEK-END TO BE MAR. 14-16

Gettysburg college will hold its annual Interfraternity week-end, which is planned and conducted by committees representing both students and alumni, March 14-16.

Charles Pledger, president of the National Alumni Interfraternity Conference, will be the speaker at the pledge banquet at Hotel Gettysburg on Friday night.

The annual skit and song night will be held in the Eddie Plank gymnasium following the pledge dinner and the dinner conferences at the fraternity houses. Between the skits fraternities will sing songs.

A dinner conference for all alumni will be held Saturday noon. Initiations will take place in the afternoon. In the evening, the fraternities will hold traditional dinners.

Dr. Andrew G. Truxal, president of Hood college, will be the speaker at the annual chapel service Sunday morning.

CARS KILL 7 DEER

Since the beginning of the year, Game Protector Leo Bushman reported, seven deer have been killed by motor cars in the county. All of the fatal accidents occurred near Gettysburg, as the deer attempted to cross the highways in the path of oncoming traffic. The carcasses were turned over to the county home, Hoffman orphanage and the Hanover hospital.

22 OF 25 BANK BILLS PASSED BY LEGISLATURE

Twenty-two of the 25 bills backed by the Pennsylvania State Bankers association were passed into law by the state Legislature during its recent session, John Y. Scott, attorney for the Pennsylvania Bankers association, told Adams county bankers at a dinner meeting Wednesday night at the Peace Light inn.

Of 23 bills to which the Pennsylvania Bankers objected, all but four were defeated, Scott added.

Attorney Scott spoke of a number of new laws including ones which would permit banks to establish branches within their own counties, but prohibit the establishment of branch banking such as exists in California; a bill changing the unemployment compensation regulations which may save Pennsylvania banks $750,000 each year because it will provide a ratio permitting the reduction of their payments to the statutory minimum.

He spent some time on a bill which permits banks in effect to put together the large number of "cemetery trusts" they now hold. "For years people have been making bequests of from $50 to $250, more or less, for care of cemeteries, or cemetery lots in perpetuity and have named banks as trustees. It is impossible to invest such small sums advantageously," Scott said. New laws permit the banks to name cemetery associations as trustees, and then permit the cemetery associations to put the amounts in the bank in trust, thus uniting all of the bequests into one lump sum for investment purposes.

Other new laws permit purchase of common stock for trusts under certain circumstances and prohibit any bank purchasing more than ten percent of the capital stock of another bank.

Attorney Scott said that next year

Outdoor Displays Of Fruits, Vegetables, Nuts Extended Into Street At Minter's Store Some Thirty Odd Years Ago

The Minter Grocery supplement begins on Page 7.

Business was conducted both on the inside and outside of Norrie Minter's delicatessen store at Baltimore and Middle streets back in the early '20's, when Mr. Minter moved his business from "the square" to this present location.

Mr. Minter's grocery business was a varied one for those days. He advertised "fresh oysters, fish and clams, fruit, nuts and produce," but his store carried the usual lines of many other staple commodities in the food business, supplying the Gettysburg housewife with quality merchandise which played a strong part in building the business to its present eminence.

The "fruit, nuts and produce" business was conducted, during good weather, on the "outside" of the store. Portions of the sidewalk, and even the gutter on the Baltimore street side of the store, were utilized for open displays of this type of merchandise.

Trestles and boxes supported planks, on which baskets and boxes of fresh vegetables, fruit and nuts were displayed. Bunches of bananas hung on either side of the outside doorway. Watermelons, in season, (Continued on Page 2)

Wm. T. Timmons, Sr., New Hartley Manager

William T. Timmons, Sr., Buford avenue, has been named manager of the M. A. Hartley and Company establishment on Carlisle street to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Ralph Z. Oyer.

Mr. Timmons served for 25 years with the local electric wholesalers, for 15 years as sales manager directly under Mr. Oyer. Appointment of Mr. Timmons as manager here was made by M. A. Hartley Wednesday morning before returning to his branch of the business at Staunton, Va.

DRAWINGS FOR POSITIONS ON BALLOTS HELD

Politics occupied much of the attention of the Adams county commissioners Wednesday afternoon.

They conducted the annual drawing to establish the positions of the various candidates on the ballots and arranged a special registration for Friday evening.

With Saturday the last day for registration prior to the April 22 primary, the commissioners set Friday night from 6 to 9 o'clock at their office in the court house as the time and place for the special registration.

Usually 100 or more persons, those who have moved into the county recently, those who have just become 21 and those who have not voted for a number of years and who thus allowed their registrations to lapse, report for the special registration periods.

The office of the county commissioners—who also act as the election board—has been busy for the last several weeks handling registrations during regular hours.

While the commissioners and their clerks went through the list of 100 or more candidates for Republican or Democratic committee, in order to determine the order in which the candidates' names will appear on the ballot, in only three instances there was any competition and thus a possibility that the position may affect the outcome in any way. Mrs. Ruth Orner drew first place as candidate for Republican vice chairman, and Mrs. Esther Hayberger second place.

In Huntington township No. 1 there are four candidates for the three posts on the Republican county committee. The candidates, as a result of the drawing, will appear in the following order: Ray E. Johnson, William D. Shank, Lloyd L. Keefe and D. L. Hospelhorn.

In Reading township the four candidates for Republican committee will appear on the ballot in this order: R. J. Jacobs, Glenn Jacobs, R. L. Spahr and Walter Lemmon. In York Springs, the Republican committee candidates' order, will be Clara E. Hardman, Albert Townsend, Preston B. Zerbe and Paul E. Miller.

SEEK 150 PINTS OF BLOOD FOR ARMED FORCES

With 150 pints of blood for the armed forces as today's goal, the Adams county Red Cross chapter was conducting its fourth Blood Donor Day in the basement of Christ Lutheran church, beginning at 10 o'clock this morning. Appointments end at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Appointments were given more than 200 for today's visit but the current prevalence of colds and grip caused some of the prospective donors to cancel their appointments. On the last visit here in January, the total was 170 pints.

A large staff of volunteer assistants is helping with the blood donor station under the direction of Mrs. Frank H. Kramer, chairman of volunteer services.

Mrs. Truman R. Eyer and Mrs. Alice Heller are the registered nurses on duty in addition to the staff brought with the bloodmobile from Baltimore.

Mrs. Rex Rice is in charge of the motor service with Mrs. Wilmer Roth, Mrs. Thomas Witner and Mrs. C. O. Schweizer as her assistants.

Two seminary students, A. R. Burkhardt and L. D. Bollinger, volunteered to help unload and load the bloodmobile.

Commander Arthur J. Roth announced a 21st District meeting at Spring Grove on Sunday, March 6. The following were named to a nominating committee to select candidates for the next meeting, March 12, for post officers: Francis Wisotzky, Ellis Starner, Harry Bender and George Mitchell. The election will be held March 26.

A meeting of the home association followed the post meeting.

Two automobiles and a truck were damaged in an accident four miles south of Gettysburg on the Emmitsburg road at 5:15 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, according to state police of the Gettysburg substation, who investigated. Total damage was estimated at $335.

Police said a car driven by Jesse R. Frazier, 28, of Palmyra, Pa., struck a car driven by Glenn Tipton, 49, Gettysburg R. 2. Tipton's car then struck a parked truck owned by Robert E. Wenschhof, Emmitsburg road. Both automobiles were traveling south, police said.

Damage to Frazier's car was estimated at $300. The damage to the Tipton car was estimated at $25 and to the truck at $10.

UN Negotiators Ask Commies For Accounting Of Non-Korean Civilians Now Held As Prisoners

Seoul, Korea, Feb. 28 (AP)—Allied fighter bombers today asked the communist supply buildings and rail bridges and blasted 120 more holes in North Korea's patchwork rail lines.

Planes of the Fifth Air Force flew 625 sorties during the day in their continuing campaign to choke off Red supply lines.

Sabre jets combed North Korean skies without sighting a Communist MIG jet, the Fifth Air Force said.

Night flying B-26 bombers spotted 1,158 Communist trucks along North Korean highways before dawn Thursday. Pilots reported 112 destroyed.

B-29 superforts bombed North Korean supply lines. One superfort was attacked by a Communist plane.

Pound Red Targets
British and American carrier planes pounded Communist targets on both coasts of Korea Wednesday. Allied warships dropped high explosives on coastline installations.

The Reds enlivened an otherwise quiet day along the ground front with propaganda leaflets. The leaflets, written in English, played on the desire of the U.N. soldiers' wish to go home. They also charged the U.N. command with stalling the truce talks at Panmunjom.

An Allied officer said it was the first time the Reds had used artillery shells for propaganda in Korea. The U.S. Eighth Army has been using the idea for months.

Temperatures ranged from 23 to 41 degrees (F). Snow and ice limited patrols in the east.

WGCT PRESENTS FINE PROGRAMS OVER WEEK-END

COUNTIAN HELD FOR GRAND JURY

Orville Jacoby, Jr., 22, of Gettysburg R. 4, driver of an automobile in which three Adams county men met their deaths at Clear Springs October 3, was held for a York county grand jury on a charge of involuntary manslaughter Wednesday following a hearing before Alderman Stewart Rosier, York. Jacoby furnished $500 bail. The case is scheduled for the April term in York.

Zeal R. Peters, 54, of Aspers R. 1; Robert Naugle, 27, and Alec Kemper, 40, both of Gettysburg R. 4, died as the result of a collision between Jacoby's car and a pick-up truck operated by Richard Williams, 18, of Chatham Center, N. Y.

Evidence taken at a coroner's inquest indicated that Jacoby, with the three men who lost their lives in the accident, and his brother were enroute to the naval supply depot, Mechanicsburg, where they were employed, and that Jacoby passed over vehicles in a heavy fog, colliding with the truck headed south on the Harrisburg road.

Slightly Wounded When Gun Discharged

Clarence Bollinger, 59, Gettysburg R. 2, is a patient at the Warner hospital after being superficially wounded along his left side when a shotgun, accidentally discharged Wednesday afternoon.

Bollinger was preparing to go target shooting when the gun exploded and the pellets grazed him above the left hip.

SHOOTS GRAY FOX

Howard Kitzmiller, superintendent of the Evergreen cemetery, shot a gray fox this morning on the cemetery grounds.

Munsan, Korea, Feb. 28 (AP)—U.N. truce negotiators today asked the Communists for another accounting of non-Korean civilians believed captured by the Reds.

Staff officers handed back to the armistice subcommittee the deadlock over voluntary repatriation of prisoners. The officers reached virtual agreement on all other points. The subcommittee will meet Friday.

Negotiations on truce supervision appeared deadlocked on Communist insistence that Soviet Russia be named to a neutral supervisory commission.

Some Unaccounted For
Allied staff officers handed Communist delegates a list of 57 names—two more than were on the original U.N. list December 30. The new names are those of the Rev. Father Jean Colin, a French Catholic missionary and Alfred Gerald Matti, a Swiss national.

The Reds disclosed late last month that 48 foreign civilians are interned in North Korea, but weren't on the Allied list. Thus the U.N. still seeks an accounting of 30 civilians who may be held by the Communists.

Col. James C. Murray gave Red negotiators the new Allied list after the Communists asked for a guarantee that foreign nationals in Allied-held territory would be returned. Murray said he knew of none and asked for names. However, he indicated there would be no objections to writing such a guarantee into the armistice agreement.

Want To Exchange Data
Murray also asked the Reds to exchange information on all prisoners ever held by either side. The Communists gave no indication they would comply.

The staff officers working on prisoner exchange plans wound up 22 days of wrangling Thursday with virtual agreement on all but the key issue—voluntary repatriation.

The prisoner exchange subcommittee will take over this thorny problem again in a meeting scheduled for 11 a.m. Friday (9 p.m. EST Thursday) in Panmunjom. The subdelegates have not met since February 6.

Negotiations on truce supervision bogged down completely.

BIGLERVILLE, M'SHERRYSTOWN REPORTS FILED

McSherrystown residents paid $20,630.69 in taxes during 1951 while Biglerville residents paid $31,549.91 during the same period according to the reports of the tax collectors of the two boroughs filed Tuesday with the county clerk of courts. Latimore township's tax collector also filed his report at the same time.

The 644 owners of real estate and 1,441 assessed for occupations in McSherrystown paid $307.65 bond tax, $11,418.52 borough tax, $1,884 school district, $4,332.43 county and $2,888.09 institution district taxes according to the report of Tax Collector Edward H. DeCheubell. Collection of the taxes cost the various taxing authorities $792.44. At the end of the year the McSherrystown residents still owned $3,777.06 on their 1951 taxes. McSherrystown, according to the report, continued last year its practice of having a very low school tax. There is no school tax on properties. The only school tax is a $1.50 per person capita tax. Since most McSherrystown youngsters attend parochial school, the few public school students are transported to nearby Conewago township for their education.

Biglerville residents paid almost as much to maintain their schools as McSherrystown residents paid on all taxes. School district taxes paid by the 227 real estate owners and 392 occupation taxpayers in Biglerville totaled $20,597.67 according to the report of Biglerville Tax Collector Elmer L. Haner.

Borough tax income for 1951 in Biglerville was $4,888.27, county, $3,897.81 and institution district, $2,166.76. Haner's report included the collections made by Dale E. Bricker.

Commissioners Buy 2nd Farm Tractor

Within the next few weeks there will be only one wistful old dobbie left at the county home—probably wondering what became of the three other horses in the barn.

Wednesday the commissioners accepted the bid of E. Donald Scott for a large John Deere tractor with plow and cultivator and equipped with hydraulic lift and power take-off. Scott's bid was $2,185. Other bids ranged from $2,245 for the same type of machine and equipment from Vernon Rife farm supply of New Oxford, up to $2,390 for similar equipment made by other concerns.

The commissioners agreed to "reclaim" four of the four horses at the county home, replacing them with the new tractor. Arrangements will be made in the near future to sell the horses.

One horse will be retained, the commissioners agreed, to work the garden and truck patch at the county home, because a horse can be used more easily and efficiently in that work than a tractor. With the purchase of the new tractor, two will now be in use at the county home.

State Employees Take Oath Monday

All state employees in Adams county will take the Loyalty Oath Monday evening at 8:15 o'clock at a mass meeting in the court house. J. William Kendelhart, county superintendent of highways, said today.

Kendelhart has been named by the governor to be in charge of arrangements for the county meeting here which all state employees must attend and take the oath.

The oath—an avowal that one does not belong to any organizations aimed at violent overthrow of the U. S. or state government—must be taken by all public employees except elected officials.

Governor Fine volunteered to lead the oath-taking ceremony in Harrisburg although he is not required to take it. He said all citizens should greet the opportunity to take the oath as a "privilege."

18 YANKS BAIL FROM AIRPLANE IN A BLIZZARD

Sydney, Nova Scotia, Feb. 28 (AP)—Eighteen men—17 of them making their first leap from an airplane—safely bailed out of a U.S. air force transport early today, moments before it crashed in a blinding blizzard. Only two men were injured, neither seriously.

The plane, a C-47 enroute from Westover, Mass., to its base at Torbay, Newfoundland, crashed in uninhabited territory along the Sydney river, on the outskirts of this industrial center. It had carried 14 passengers and a crew of four.

The pilot had made 20 attempts to land through the storm at Sydney airport, eight miles from the crash site, before he ordered everyone into parachutes.

3,000-Foot Jump
Staff Sgt. R. Redinger, of Chambersburg, the only man aboard with previous jumping experience, fitted the "chutes and gave each man quick instructions for the leap.

The escape door jammed for a moment, but broke loose when the men heaved against it for the second time.

The jump was made at 3,000 feet. When the last man leaped into the darkness, swirling snow and a 50-mile-an-hour wind, the plane had only three minutes was supply left.

All 18 men were found within a half-mile radius by search teams of police and reserve army troops. Lt. Col. James A. Harron, of Grose Point, Mich., cracked several ribs in his landing on a hilltop and was carried off in a toboggan.

Chased By Storm
Capt. James P. Amaro, of Birmingham, Ala., twisted his knee in a treetop landing only yards from high tension wires carrying electricity into Sydney.

The pilot, Capt. T. E. Koblenz, said the storm "chased us right from Westover." He said he expected to outrun the blizzard but decided to try landing at Sydney when the storm worsened.

Several times he sighted the lights of Sydney airport but couldn't get the plane down through the strong winds. Then he ordered the jump. Westover said the crewmen aboard, in addition to Capt. Koblenz, were Capt. W. L. Riley, co-pilot, S/Sgt. Redinger, and Sgt. A. Sharron.

Outdoor Displays

were piled along the curb and in the street.

There was a small cash register on a box near the door, and over the fruits and vegetables and the cash register Earl Heagey, one of Minter's employees at that time, presided.

Nestled in the midst of the fresh vegetables was an old-fashioned set of scales on which purchases were weighed. Bananas and other fruits were sold then by the dozen, rather than by the pound as they are today.

The interior of the store was modern for its day and age, but bore little resemblance to modern merchandising ideas as exemplified in the present Minter store, which opens the observance of its 36th anniversary Friday.

Fewer goods were packaged. Only meats handled then were cold cuts, but the store prided itself on the freshness, quality and taste of its fish and oysters.

Another of Mr. Minter's employees was John Bowers. Both he and Mr. Heagey are still living. Mr. Minter died in 1937.

Washington, Feb. 28 (AP)—Senator Sparkman (D-Ala.) said today he hopes the Senate Foreign Relations committee will ask Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower to return from Europe soon to testify on U.S. aid to North Atlantic treaty nations.

After all, as supreme commander there he knows more about the situation than any other man."

Bullets Down Muhlenberg 93-82 For 13th Decision

The Gettysburg college basketball team got sweet revenge for a previous setback by upsetting Muhlenberg here Wednesday night in a free-scoring affair 93-82.

After the first few minutes of play the Bullets were never headed although several times the Mules pulled the score to close quarters.

A set shot by Friedman and his foul put the Mules ahead at 6-5 for the final time after about two minutes. Coach "Hen" Bream's charges then went on an accurate goal shooting spree to roll up a 21-8 lead after about six minutes. Muhlenberg surged back late in the quarter to cut the lead to 23-19 and just as the period ended Watson tallied a goal to make the count 25-19.

Lang Injured

Gettysburg moved ahead 31-19 on a pair of goals by Lang and foul tosses by Watson and Lang. Lang was cut about the eye on a scrimmage play that forced him to retire for the remainder of the half. Johnny Habeeb replacing him in the lineup. It was a give-and-take game the remainder of the quarter as the scoring saw-sawed and at half time the Bullets were on top 49-42.

The third period followed the same pattern as the second with the teams matching goals through most of the play. Near the end of the quarter a pair of set shots by Friedman and a pair of goals by Hanwerk and two fouls by Maxwell cut the locals' lead to 71-66. In the final minute Coder looped a foul and Hare a goal to make it 73-66.

Early in the final frame Muhlenberg pulled to within 76-71 but the Bullets recovered and maintained their lead to the finish.

Attack Well Rounded

Coder, Watson, Hare, Lang and Resanovich each scored in double figures for the well-rounded Gettysburg attack. Friedman's long shooting and Rudolph's spinning layups featured for the Mules.

The victory was the 13th against seven defeats for the Bream-men. On Saturday the Bullets tangle with Lebanon Valley on the latter's court. The Dutchmen, victors over the Bullets here, own a 17-3 record, best average in the state.

SPIVEY QUIZZED BY GRAND JURY

New York, Feb. 28 (AP)—Big Bill Spivey, the University of Kentucky's All-America center, headed home today convinced that he had cleared his name of the stigma of "fixing" basketball games. Spivey's fate now is in the hands of the university athletic council.

"Bill came here to clear his name," said Elmer Drake, one of his attorneys. "And as far as I'm concerned he did. I can see no reason why the school will not permit him to play in the NCAA tournament."

Spivey, who could mean the difference between Kentucky making the Olympic games or being beaten, presented a case unparalleled in college sports.

When some of his former teammates were linked with gamblers in the "fix" scandals, he asked that his name be dropped from the Kentucky basketball team until it was cleared. He said he thought he was suspected of being involved. That was in December.

Recently, he asked to rejoin his team, then volunteered to come here and face Assistant District Attorney Vincent A. G. O'Connor and a grand jury, both investigating the fixes.

He spent more than an hour with O'Connor Tuesday and went before the grand jury yesterday. Nothing he said was revealed, although the district attorney's office emphasized several times that he was not "wanted" in connection with the scandal that involved former Kentucky ace Dale Barnstable, Alex Groza and Ralph Beard.

SALE BY YANKS BIG BREAK FOR BILLY JOHNSON

St. Petersburg, Fla., Feb. 28 (AP)—Imagine a ball player calling himself lucky because he was cast off by the mighty New York Yankees, champions of the baseball world.

Sounds fantastic, doesn't it? Well, listen to the way Billy Johnson explains it.

"I never thought there was another organization that could touch the Yankees," said Johnson when asked how it felt to be playing with a team other than New York.

Treat Players Better

"I'm shipped to St. Louis and I discover that the Cardinals' organization is every bit as good as the Yankees. They run their farm system the same way, they are just as liberal, and in fact they treat their players even better. There is a closer association between the front office and the player on the cards."

"For instance, with the Yankees, I was lucky if George Weiss (general manager) ever said 'hello' to me. On this club, Mr. Saigh (Fred Saigh, Cardinal president) comes over to me and asks me 'how do you feel, Bill, how is the family?' It makes you feel good to have your boss treat you as an equal."

"You know, I expected to have a little difficulty with my contract this year. Mr. Saigh, I've heard rumored, is a tough man to deal with. But I was pleasantly surprised. I had no trouble at all. As a matter of fact, I am very happy with my contract. It is one of the best I ever had. When the Yanks sold me to St. Louis it turned out to be the biggest break I ever got. I'll never forget how dumbstruck I was when I first heard the news."

After 1949 when Casey Stengel took over as manager of the Yankees Billy shared third base duties with Bobby Brown, but now Johnson says: "The day I reported to St. Louis I was told I was the regular third baseman. Don't think that doesn't mean a lot."

Johnson joined the Cards in mid-May. Although his batting average was only .262 for 124 games he proved one of the best clutch hitters in the league. He batted in 64 runs, smashed 14 home runs and led all third sackers in fielding.

Baseball Training Camp Briefs

San Bernardino, Calif., Feb. 28 (AP)—General Manager Branch Rickey received word from Pittsburgh today that Pirate pitcher Ted Wilks has signed a 1952 contract.

Wilks appeared in 65 games last year, tops in the National League. Despite an unimpressive 3-5 record, his 2.85 earned run average was the best on the Pirate staff.

With the Pirates due Monday, ten Bucs, including hurler Murky Dickson, remain unsigned. Rickey has been conducting a school for farmhands.

Clearwater, Fla., Feb. 28 (AP)—There's a steady job waiting for Tommy Brown with the Philadelphia Phillies — if the 25-year-old outfielder can prove himself as a hitter.

Manager Eddie Sawyer called Brown aside yesterday — the first in camp for the nine-year veteran — and told him "the left field job is yours if you can hit well enough to hold it."

In previous years with the Brooklyn Dodgers, and last year with the Phillies Brown subbed at a number of positions.

He hit .213 last year, with 10 home runs.

West Palm Beach, Fla., Feb. 28 (AP)—Gus Zernial, 1951 American league's home run and runs batted in champion, is expected to sign his Philadelphia Athletics contract for 1952 today or tomorrow.

Zernial arrived in camp yesterday and announced he anticipated no trouble in reaching terms with General Manager Arthur Ehlert when Ehlert gets here for the official start of training Saturday.

Two weeks ago the A's offered Zernial a new contract, containing an increase in pay.

Tucson, Ariz., Feb. 28 (AP)—In his search for good catching reserve strength, Indians Manager Al Lopez is giving a negro named Quincey Troupe a tryout.

Troupe was a manager himself once, of the Cleveland Buckeyes, and rookie pitcher Sam Jones calls him one of the best catchers from the negro leagues, possibly as good as Brooklyn's Roy Campanella.

Troupe, who smilingly gives his age as 29, is signed to a contract with Indianapolis, a Cleveland farm, but he'll work out here at least until March 15 — maybe longer, says Lopez.

St. Petersburg, Fla., Feb. 28 (AP)—Yogi Berra, the most valuable player in the American league last year, came up with a prediction today — his New York Yankees are going to win the pennant again this year even without Joe DiMaggio.

"We needed Joe last season," said the Yanks' catcher. "He was an inspiration and still a great player. But I believe we're going to make it without him now. Why? Because we're going to have a pitching staff that isn't going to get tired. I figure we'll have seven starters."

Sarasota, Fla., Feb. 28 (AP)—Hampered by a soggy diamond all this week, Manager Lou Boudreau today hoped to put his 24 Boston Red Sox pitchers to work. He fears several of them have become slightly rusty.

Boudreau planned to have all of them throwing in batting practice during the remainder of the week. He will delay the intra-squad practice games until Monday, when, he expects, all hands, including Ted Williams, will be available.

Lakeland, Fla., Feb. 28 (AP)—That emergency appendicitis operation a couple of weeks ago may have made a new man of Detroit Tiger Manager Red Rolfe.

For years Rolfe has been plagued by frequent attacks of colic, or intestinal inflammation. But, arriving at Detroit spring training camp yesterday, the Bengal boss said his doctor told him the appendix may have been his trouble all along.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

EYES UPON US

Eyes are forever upon us, no matter where we go. Somebody is wondering who we are, what we do, what we read, and what we think. We are examples of speculation. And our eyes, as all, are upon others going through the same process.

But these eyes of ours see only the surface of things. They cannot penetrate the mind. They cannot photograph the heart. Yet we often say things to others, not always in praise or appreciation, as though we did see right into the thoughts of lives of others. Even blood ties are often clouded. The brother of W. H. Hudson once stated that of all men he knew his brother the least.

Even the hardened criminal, after being sentenced and led from the court room, tries to hide his face from photographers and the curious. He is afraid of eyes. The honest and enthusiastic salesman looks his prospect in the eye, and that look from his eye is often more convincing than the words he speaks. Eyes sell!

The eyes tell more than any of us ever suspects, but they conceal as well. The first messages of love come from the eyes. As the saying goes—"love at first sight." The American poet, Walt Mason once wrote of the eyes of Lincoln in this fashion: "Sad eyes, that were patient and tender, sad eyes, that were steadfast and true, and warm with the unchanging splendor of courage no lills could subdue."

The eyes in nature are also upon us. Birds, animals, even insects, are ever upon us when we are near. They have their own manner of measurement with those eyes of theirs. Have you ever tried to fathom the honest look of a dog from those wonderful eyes of his? They look right through you because they hide nothing. Fewer hunters would kill the beautiful deer if they could first look into those marvelous eyes that this animal owns.

How penetrating is the look from the eyes of a baby! How full of wonder and questioning. There are more eyes upon us than we ever suspect. We are watched by invisible eyes as well. Edwin Booth once wrote to a minister that there was no place in his theatre where God's eyes couldn't see.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Windows."

INCIDENT

He saw her wandering the hall.
Bewildered by the building's size,
Seeking a doorway number small
And much too faint for tired eyes.

"The light is very dim," said she.
"Some rooms are difficult to find."

"I'll help you. Come with me," said he.
She answered: "Sir, you're very kind."

His name or place she never knew.
But later sent a thankful note
Telling the firm of some one whom
For courtesy it should promote.

He chuckled as the scrawl he read
Telling how much a kindness meant.
"I can't promote myself," he said.
"Already I am president."

5-HOUR COUNCIL SESSION IS HELD IN LITTLESTOWN; TAX RATE SAME

The Littlestown borough council at a five-hour session Tuesday night adopted the 1952 budget that carries with it a continuation of the 18-mill tax rate for borough purposes.

At the same meeting the councilmen opened bids for street building and repair materials for this year and awarded the contracts. Bids for an emergency lighting system for the Alpha engine house were opened also and tentatively awarded the contract, pending a study of the materials referred to in the bids.

Two bids were received on the emergency lighting system for the engine house. One was from the H. N. Bange Electrical Contractors, Hanover, for $1,963 and the other was from Stanley B. Stover of Littlestown for $1,339.50. The building committee was directed to study the offers with regard to the materials to be used and if found satisfactory to award the contract to Stover.

Buy Street Materials

Two bids were opened on bituminous materials to be used in street building and repair work. The offer of the Lansell Company, Inc., Baltimore, was accepted for 10,000 gallons of materials at 17.9 cents per gallon. The other offer was from the Service Supply company of York at 18.9 cents per gallon.

There were two bids on the 1,000 tons of crushed stones needed for street work. The John S. Teeter and Sons, Inc., bid was $1.60 at the quarry. The Bethlehem Steel company of Hanover bid $1.35 per ton at the quarry and the latter bid was accepted. One bid for hauling stone from the quarry was received and accepted. It was the offer of Floyd E. Geiman, Hanover, at 50 cents per ton.

W. G. Weikert came before council with a complaint relative to the new curbing at his property at 43 North Queen street. He previously had a depressed curb for a driveway there but when the new curb was laid after the street improvement, Margaret Yeagey, Miss Violet Kemper, Miss Mildred Clapsaddle and Mrs. Edna Reaver, Miss Florence Mae Steward, secretary of the YWCA, was also in attendance.

Initiated Into Club: Four new members were initiated into the Business and Professional Girls' club of the YWCA, Thursday evening. Those admitted to the club are Misses Relda Green, Gertrude Little, MaBelle Heretier and Mrs. Marie Shaffer.

no depression was made. State highway department plans did not call for a depressed curb there, council learned, and because Mr. Weikert's complaint was not received until last month council decided it was a matter between the property owner and the state or contractor with the borough not being involved.

Ask Street Grading

A committee including three James avenue residents, Claude A. White, Donald L. Beford and Harold F. Messinger, brought before council a petition bearing 11 names asking the grading and surfacing of James avenue from West King to West Myrtle street this year. The council's street committee informed the citizens' group that they had made an inspection of James avenue along with a number of other town streets including sections of Price street, Rita Marie avenue, West Myrtle street, Lumber street and other streets and alleys and estimates on proposed work there are being awaited from the borough engineer. When those estimates are received consideration will be given the petition on James avenue when the street construction program for the year is worked out, it was stated.

Fire Chief Glenn F. Ohler came before council to discuss fire company needs. Results included a decision to have a Westminster man come to Littlestown to inspect and repair the fire pump. Chief Ohler also told of difficulties experienced at the White garage fire with regard to the size of couplings on Littlestown fire hydrants. It was decided that the borough secretary, Roger J. Keefe, should secure prices on hose adapters. Keefe also was instructed to secure prices on a Siamese gate valve connection for the fire hose and two fog nozzles for the LaFrance pump.

Council tabled an inquiry from the fire chief as to whether council would pay expenses of Littlestown firemen who enroll in a fire-fighting school next August. Chief Ohler said the cost would be about $75 per fireman.

Borough street and alley conditions were discussed with an alley east of South Queen street to get attention and possible stoning later. The Rife company will be reminded of a black-topping job on an alley near the Carroll Shoe company plant.

The repainting of safety zones in the borough was authorized with the work to be done as soon as weather permits. The council discussed at length a proposal to change the rate for permits for making openings in the town streets. The matter was tabled for the present. Water permits were issued to Harry D. Feaser, Littlestown R. 2, for a service connection on East Myrtle street; Earl L. Stites, West King street, for household uses; Irvin J. Null, Littlestown R. 2, for two-family connection on East King street, and to I. H. Crouse and Sons for a service connection to a garage on Keystone street.

To Extend Water Main

An extension in the six-inch water main on East Myrtle street was ordered in order to serve a new residence to be erected by Harry D. Feaser.

Council gave its approval to a school board plan for moving playground equipment close to that on the borough playground.

Council directed that the proper state officials be notified that Littlestown borough is desirous of providing social security benefits for its employees and to secure more information on what will be required of the borough to maintain those benefits.

Another council motion provides that Chief of Police Albert Miller be paid his regular salary while he is incapacitated by injuries he received in an auto accident while he was on duty.

Permits Issued

Monthly financial reports were submitted by Borough Treasurer J. H. Fleckinger for the water fund and other borough accounts.

Building permits were issued to the Littlestown Hardware and Foundry company, for a one story addition; I. H. Crouse and Sons for a one-story addition to the dwelling of Warren J. Wisotzky on Prince street; I. H. Crouse and Sons, for a one-story garage on Keystone street; Irvin J. Null for remodeling of a dwelling on East King street; I. H. Crouse and Sons, to change roof for A. W. Schott, East King street; Charles A. Hofe, to construct a dwelling for Mrs. Catherine Hahn on West Myrtle street and another for Harry D. Feaser on East Myrtle; Earl L. Stites, to erect a metal display sign at his dwelling on West

King street. Council received the monthly report of Chief Miller showing 69 tickets issued for meter violations and a total of 79 arrests for all causes. Four accidents were investigated, eight payrolls guarded and eight funerals escorted. Council's next regular meeting will be on March 25. President Roscoe Rittase presided at Tuesday's meeting in the office of the borough secretary with all members present.

Collazo Loses Death Appeal
Washington, Feb. 28 (AP)—The U. S. Court of Appeals today upheld the conviction and death sentence of Oscar Collazo, who shot and killed a White House guard in an attempt to assassinate President Truman.

Pvt. Leslie Coffelt was shot to death during an attempted storming of Blair House, temporary residence of the Truman family, by Collazo and a fellow Puerto Rican November 1, 1950.

Collazo, who is 37 years old, was sentenced to die after he was tried in District Court. His attorneys appealed the conviction and a stay of execution was ordered.

Today's action still leaves Collazo two chances to escape the electric chair.

The Supreme Court could yet reverse the conviction or the President could commute the sentence.

Collazo's companion, Grisello Torresola, was killed by White House guards during the assault.

Pottelger and Noss were trailed from the Maryland hideout to the bridge over the Susquehanna river at Harrisburg, FBI said.

At the time the truck was stolen, Gray, accused of permitting Marion Wolford to store some of the loot in his Millersburg, Md., garage, was held in $7,500 bail by a U.S. commissioner in Baltimore, charged with being an accessory after the fact. A similar charge was filed there against Walter Wolford.

Robert Wolford, another brother, and Mrs. Marion Isaac Wolford, wife of one of the accused, also were questioned in the case but were released without charges being filed against them.

Maj. C. C. Keller, of the state police, said more than 500 cases were seized in the Maryland garage. Another 50 cases of liquor were seized when Pottelger and Noss were arrested driving their truck across the Taylor bridge here.

Keller said $9,000 worth of playing cards were found hidden in a parking lot near Wilmington, Del., where the stolen trailer also was found.

Minter's Grocery Store Will Observe 36th Anniversary Beginning On Friday

Minter's store, at Baltimore and Middle streets, as seen from the entrance at the corner of the building. Foods are attractively arranged on modern shelving and store "gondolas." Baskets are provided for those who like "self service." The meat department is shown at the rear.

This is one of the "check-out" counters in the modern Minter food store, and shown serving a customer is Stover A. Small, one of the three present partners in the business founded by Norris L. Minter thirty-six years ago.

Bread, pastries and confections are attractively displayed and conveniently arranged. Shown at the right of the picture is Clifford Naugle, one of the partners in the business.

Baltimore Street Business Will Celebrate Occasion With Special Sale; Award 35 Baskets Of Food

One hundred years ago the northeast corner of Baltimore and Middle streets was the private residence of a physician. Today it is the site of one of the most up-to-date and best equipped food markets in this section of the state. Beginning Friday, and continuing through March 8, Minter's, founded in 1916, will observe its 36th anniversary.

During this birthday celebration, 35 baskets of groceries will be distributed as gifts, and there will be a number of other awards for those who visit the store. A number of food demonstrations are also planned during the period, including a coffee demonstration, demonstration of Musselman products and another of meat products.

Founded in 1916
The late Norris L. Minter founded the grocery business which still bears his name, in 1916. Mr. Minter was a resident of Arendtsville before coming to Gettysburg to open a store on what was then known as "Center Square," now Lincoln Square.

In Arendtsville, he had operated a restaurant. He also manufactured ice cream and sold it in that borough, and at many public sales. As was the custom then with the large all-day crowds attending these events, he conducted stands for the sale of food and refreshments.

Minter's store was moved to the present location at Baltimore and Middle streets in 1924. When this property was the residence of a physician, it boasted a large yard around the premises. The Star and Sentinel in 1852 advertised as follows:

"For sale or to rent, the very desirable private residence at the northeast corner of Baltimore and Middle streets, with a large yard filled with fine fruit trees, etc. Now occupied by Dr. Gilbert's family. Apply to Dr. Huber."

Had 3 Locations
The store's history has been one of continuous enterprise, improvement and progress. The store observed its 24th anniversary with a special eight-day sale in February, 1940, and its 26th anniversary in 1942.

In commenting on the 24th observance, The Gettysburg Times said:

"Norris Minter gave up the confectionary business in Arendtsville in 1912 to come to Gettysburg and buy the Wine-man grocery store in Center square. His next move was to the City Market site and from there he went to the present location of the grocery."

During the 26th anniversary in 1942, defense stamps were awarded as prizes during the sale, and there were demonstrations of various food products.

Add Third Floor
The store at Baltimore and Middle streets was purchased by Mr. Minter from P. A. Miller. Mr. Minter made many improvements. He added a third floor to the brick structure and built an addition at the rear. His business prospered. In 1936 Mr. Minter decided to retire. The store was taken over by a partnership composed of L. Glenn Minter, a son; Stover A. Small, a son-in-law, and Clifford G. Naugle, who had been employed by Mr. Minter for several years before the latter retired.

National Products
Since that time the store has been twice modernized, until it stands today among the best in the convenience of its facilities, the cleanliness of its appointments, and the quality of its merchandise.

For the past two years, the store has been of the partial self-service type, affording ready access to all its products for customers who like to do their own shopping, and with clerks to fulfill the needs of others. Just recently, the entire front part of the store has been re-arranged.

The store features leading brands of frosted foods, dairy products, meats, seafoods, fresh produce, groceries, canned goods, pastries, household supplies and many other articles. It affords its customers a free delivery service.

government restrictions."

One of our prominent socialists in speech after speech has loudly called for the socialization of the "commanding heights" of our economy. In the book, "The East European Revolution," by Hugh Seton-Watson, the author says on page 236:

"The first aim of the Communist-led coalitions was to control what Lenin once called the 'commanding heights' of the economy, especially mines, power, communications and heavy industry."

The Country Gentleman will soon publish a feature article on General Eisenhower and his new farm just at the edge of town. E. H. Taylor, staff writer, visited Gettysburg this week in connection with the piece.

The man who earns more in one hour than the average American family earns in a year is Sheikh Abdullah, of Kuwait, situated along the Persian Gulf. His income this year will be approximately $383,500 a day or about $140,000,000 for twelve months... tax free.

During the first 12 months of the fighting in Korea, United Nations ships moved 80 million barrels of oil products to support our military forces there.

Pennsylvania's Campaign against traffic fatalities has set an example for the rest of the nation, according to an article in the March issue of Pageant magazine entitled "We Can Save 20,000 Lives A Year." In a "Memo to Pennsylvania" Pageant says, "You are the best in the country with your motor vehicle inspections, your school safety training program and your driver licensing laws. "A strict speed law enforcement program has brought Pennsylvania a steadily lowered traffic fatality rate. A speed conviction in that state doesn't bring on merely a fine. Something infinitely harder to bear hind the wheel which is responsible for so many needless traffic deaths.

Although U. S. population grew 67 million between 1910 and today, the farm population dropped from 32 to 24 million.

It is estimated that the average U. S. farmer produces more today in one hour of work than the farmer of 50 years ago produced in two.

POINT OF VIEW IS IMPORTANT TO ECONOMISTS

By ROWLAND EVANS, JR.
Washington, Feb. 28 (AP) — Six labor relations experts, agents of the Wage Stabilization Board, are in the middle of the incredibly tough job of separating fact from fancy in the millions of words of testimony bearing on the steel wage dispute.

President Truman sent the dispute to the board two months ago. He told it to hear both sides and recommend a fair settlement.

Almost all the testimony from industry and union officials was based on economics. Economics is anything but an exact science. It depends on your point of view.

Job Is To Get Facts
So Benjamin Fairless, president of the U. S. Steel Corp., could say, as he did, that any wage boost would be "inflationary"—that "our whole economy may be seriously harmed"—that the government would lose billions in taxes if the union's full demands were met and the industry got no price increase.

And Philip Murray, president of the United Steel workers Union (CIO) could reply, as he did, that this is "blatant, obvious hypocrisy"; that the steel workers are entitled to 35¢ cents more an hour in wages and fringe benefits, like extra holiday pay, without exceeding anti-inflation wage policies. The union figures its total demands come to about that much; the industry figures they come to more than 50 cents an hour.

What are the facts? That's the job of the six labor experts, two each representing the public's interest, labor's interest, labor's interest and the interest of management. Their chairman is Prof. Harry Shulman of Yale university.

To Report Soon
Starting late this week or early next the six-man panel will submit its facts to the 18-member wage board. Because the board doesn't have time to wait for all the facts it will take them in bits and pieces as the panel grinds them out.

The board is under extreme pressure to make its recommended settlement quickly. The 600,000 workers in basic steel have twice postponed a threatened strike. The latest strike date—and it is not expected to change—is midnight, March 23.

The board's job is to take the facts and apply them to the anti-inflation policies it has set up to govern wages during the mobilization emergency. Taken as a whole, these rules are considered flexible.

Some of them allow:

- Many Ways Possible
1. A 10 per cent raise over the levels of January, 1950. A raise the steel workers got late in 1950 just about wipes out that 10 per cent for them.
  2. A raise to balance advances in the cost of living since January, 1951. This would provide an estimated eight to 10 cents an hour.
  3. Raises for fringe benefits. For instance, the union asks eight paid holidays a year. The estimated cost would be about a nickel a man per hour. There are others.
  4. Raises to correct differences in pay at different plants, called inter-plant inequities.
- All in all, there are many ways the wage board could approve wage increases. It neither has to stick to the letter of its policies nor grant all the increases those policies might allow.

Hurls "Labor Czar" Charge At CIO Head

New York, Feb. 28 (AP)—A former negotiating official of the CIO International Union of Electrical Workers (IUE) charges that President James B. Carey acted as a "labor czar" in handling negotiations with the Westinghouse Electric Corp.

The charge was made Tuesday by Michael Fitzpatrick, of Pittsburgh, who did not seek reelection as chairman of the union's Westinghouse conference board.

Carey said later that the board adopted a resolution declaring: "We completely repudiate the allegation by Fitzpatrick that President Carey had acted as an irresponsible labor czar."

The clash became public as the

POSTPONE UMT, TAFT SUGGESTS

Washington, Feb. 28 (AP) — Sen. Taft has proposed that the start of Universal Military Training (UMT) be postponed "for about three years."

"I can't see why we should try to start UMT as long as the draft now is taking most young men for two years active duty," the Ohio Republican told a reporter. "I could not vote to do it now."

Other protests were cited by Rep. Short (R-Mo.), a leading opponent of UMT. Short predicted that northern Democrats from labor and farm districts would help Republicans kill the measure.

But Chairman Vinson (D-Ok.) of the House Armed Services committee continued to predict passage of the bill when it comes to a vote, probably next week.

The House is in the second day of debate on the controversial measure to give 18-year-olds six months' training, followed by 7½ years in the reserves.

UMT bills before the House and Senate would set up detailed authority for a start of compulsory military training, whenever Congress or the President determined it possible and funds were provided.

union announced it would seek pay increases from Westinghouse for 50,000 of its employees. The amount of the demand was not made public. The current contract expires April 1. The union said present wages average $1.88 an hour.

P. T. Barnum sponsored Jenny Lind in her American debut.

Harrisburg, Feb. 28 (AP)—The state Liquor Control board yesterday approved the return of $3,205,875 in license fees to municipalities. The money represents the full amount of fees collected from liquor licenses for the period from August 1 to January 31.

BANKER BLAMES POOR WAGES FOR EMBEZZLEMENT

Parkersburg, W. Va., Feb. 28 (AP)—Twenty-five years of starvation wages were blamed today by a banker accused of a $36,000 shortage in his books.

Samuel E. Swiger, 56-year-old married man with two children, poured out his story in a jail cell "because I don't want other men to get into the same profession."

He gave himself up Monday night at Clarksburg, W. Va., after the Federal Bureau of Investigation had been searching for him 10 days. Swiger said he spent most of the time in Chicago hotels.

Until his disappearance, Swiger was vice president and cashier of the Farmers and Merchants National bank at Cairo, W. Va.

The FBI has said Swiger admitted embezzling at least $50,000 in bank funds during the past seven years. Authorities said Swiger disappeared when a routine examination of the books showed a $36,000 shortage.

Asked by a reporter why he had taken the money, Swiger replied: "I don't want to shield myself, but I lay the reason to starvation wages throughout my 25 years in the banking business. I stress that because I don't want other men to get into the same profession."

The former banker, being held in $50,000 bail for federal grand jury action, said he had worked at a Harrisville, W. Va., bank several years for $75 and $85 a month. In 1941, he added, he took a position at the Cairo bank and was paid $100 a month for several years.

"It was finally raised to a better figure," Swiger declared, "but under present conditions it just won't support an ordinary family."

John Sandee, president of the Farmers and Merchants National bank, was present at the interview. He said Swiger was being paid "about $250 a month, a very livable wage in that community."

GENERAL DEAN SAYS AIDE WAS HERO IN KOREA

Panmunjom, Korea, Feb. 28 (AP)—Maj. Gen. William F. Dean, highest ranking Allied officer in Communist hands and a Medal of Honor winner, says his aide, not he, was a hero.

The 52-year-old former commander of the U. S. 24th Division said in a letter from Prison Camp No. 6 in North Korea: "I regret that I am not the hero newspaper accounts make me out to be."

The stories of Dean's experiences in South Korea during the month he eluded Communists before he was captured in August, 1950, came from Koreans he encountered and Americans who were with the general just before he lost contact with his troops.

Dean's letter, dated in January, was addressed to Australian-born Wilfred Burchett, correspondent for the Communist Paris Ce Soir, Burchett released it to the Associated Press Tuesday.

It said in part: "It was good to hear from you and to have the information on my son's reaction (William F. Dean, Jr., at West Point) upon being informed that I was still on deck. x x x "I am indeed grateful to you for getting the information that Arthur Clarke, my aide, escaped and is still alive. That wonderful news has taken a great load off my mind. Clarke was the hero of the night of 21 July, 1950, not I."

Transmitted By Radio
(That's the night Communists overran an element of the 24th Division; Dean risked his life to save his men, was cut off and escaped, only to be captured eventually.)

"I also appreciate your writing Mildred (Dean's wife) and getting word to her so expeditiously. Mr. (Robert) Tuckman of the AP sent me a copy of your radio letter."

Burchett's letter to Mrs. Dean in Berkeley, Calif., was transmitted from Tokyo to San Francisco by the AP's radio teletype.

Dean said, "Your account of our meeting and your interview with me is extremely flattering and complimentary and depicts me in a very heroic light. I regret that I am not

Boys Got Extortion Idea From TV Show

Baltimore, Feb. 28 (AP)—Three boys—the oldest 14—who said they got the idea from watching a television crime program, were held on charges of extortion today after being foiled in an attempt for $20,000.

The intended victim, Simon I. Kemp, official of a neighborhood bank, was ordered by an anonymous caller to leave $20,000 in the vestibule of a certain house. His wife and daughter were threatened with death if the banker refused.

Kemp notified police, who told him to leave a fake package of money at the address. When someone inside picked up the package, police moved in and captured the three youngsters.

the hero you make me out to be.

"I hope that I am not presuming on good nature when I request you send me by the North Korean liaison officer or anyone coming up here a fountain pen that I have asked Colonel Clarke in Tokyo to send you. I am very hard on a pen and I therefore dislike using another's pen for fear of ruining it."

"Thanking you for the kind and generous treatment of me in your report and again thanking you for writing Mildred, I am,

"Sincerely, William F. Dean, major general U.S.A. (POW)."

Dean also wrote Burchett that he regretted he was unable to make a radio recording for broadcasting. Dean said, "I am convinced that I have talked too much as it is."

IKE BOOSTED BY DUFF IN N. H.

Keene, N. H., Feb. 28 (AP)—Senator hower Tuesday night he would like to see the Republican party nominate "a candidate we know we can elect."

"I want to win with a candidate the convention chooses for a change," Duff said in a speech at city hall, adding:

"This is life or death for the Republican party. We have gone down the drain in the last four elections."

Eisenhower, the Pennsylvanian said, is "the most popular big American (today), irrespective of party."

At a news conference before his speech, Duff said "scurrilous" publications are being distributed—"intended to bring all candidates into disrepute except (Senator Robert A.) Taft (R-Ohio)."

"Hitlerian Technique"

He said the pamphlets are all over Pennsylvania and employ a "Hitlerian technique," claiming that Eisenhower is not a real American, that he is favorable to Russia, and that he was decorated by Stalin. Duff said such publications would not do the country any good.

The Pennsylvanian told reporters the general could carry a number of southern states, including Florida, Virginia and North Carolina, and he might possibly win Texas and Louisiana.

He said he had no idea whether Eisenhower would come home from Paris to campaign but it might be a good idea if he returned no later than May 1.

As for predicting how Eisenhower would fare in New Hampshire's first-in-the-nation presidential primary on March 11, Duff asked that he be given time to "get my feet on the ground first."

The new brain was designed by Prof. Frederic Williams of Manchester university.

Washington, Feb. 28 (AP)—The government has launched a nationwide check on complaints that new and used car dealers are not complying with price regulations.

The Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) said that inquiry will deal with any over-ceiling sales and with the proper posting and tagging of prices on cars. Enforcement Chief Edward P. Morgan said in a statement that "wide-spread reports of non-compliance necessitated the survey." The agency said the complaints came from all sections of the country.

The decision was made Tuesday by director of the association. They had been authorized to take the action by a referendum vote of the membership.

FACTS ABOUT GROWING QUINCES

Despite the fact that the quince is one of the oldest of domesticated fruits and has played a foremost role in history, it remains a low secondary crop in America. Just why it has never attained economic importance is difficult to determine. True, it is popular. Many inquiries from readers indicate it is quite widely grown as a backyard tree. In jelly and as preserves the quince occupies a worthwhile place among fruits. Yet, it is completely eclipsed by other pome and stone fruits and little or no research is directed toward its improvement.

Perhaps the chief reason why quince growing has never been attempted on a commercial scale in this country is found in the fact that it is not a fruit that can be eaten fresh, although in Iran varieties are grown which are reported delicious when eaten ripe from the tree. For those who wish to obtain more information about quince culture it must be admitted that few agricultural authorities have ever written anything about it except for the minor roles it has so long occupied.

Quince trees thrive on a wide range of soil types, provided in all cases the site is well drained. Probably a fairly fertile clay loam is best suited, one that contains enough organic matter to hold moisture throughout the growing season. Many growers claim the trees grow faster and live longer on the lighter types of loam, although numerous surveys show that only half of this claim is true. Trees do make faster growth on light loams but production is heavier and life is longer on medium heavy clay soils.

The quince tree or bush seldom attains a height of more than 15 feet and can be controlled to a low-growing plant by proper early pruning. Its relatively slow growth is explained partly by the fact that, unlike apples, pears and most other deciduous fruits, its fruit buds are not formed the previous season but grow early in the spring at the terminals of new twigs. It is this habit that prevents these twigs from prolonged growth in late spring and summer and causes the crooked branch formation.

Many nurseries sell 3-year old trees although experience may indicate that 1- or 2-year old stock is preferable if the grower wishes to train them into low-growing bushes by early pruning. For example, if a 1-year old nursery tree is headed back to a height of about 10 inches, branches will be developed from near the base and the tree can be kept with an open head and low, spreading main limbs.

Spacing 15 feet apart each way is sufficient for quince trees. If grown along fence rows, which by the way are ideal sites, this spacing affords good air circulation and renders spraying operations easy.

Fire-blight is common to the quince, the same disease that attacks apples and pears. Other ills include leaf blight, rust, various fruit spots, bitter rot and other diseases quite common to apples. The quince curculio is the most serious insect foe. Spraying has been developed to control or prevent most of the diseases while insects call for about the same combat as is necessary to protect other fruits.

The editor will gladly answer all questions readers wish to ask on this long-neglected subject. In the meantime prospective growers should order nursery stock for planting as early in March as soil and weather conditions permit.

TIMELY NOTES ON LILACS

Lilacs have deservedly won a firm and lasting place in the affections of all who appreciate beauty and fragrance in shrubs. They belong to the "old-fashioned" group of ornamentals yet they include many improved strains which rank them among the "moderns" of home ground planting. Because they have so long been widely grown, they are often seriously neglected. Their maximum merits are known only by growers who are willing to add those few little "extras" in proper care.

One of the most common mistakes made with lilacs is the habit of pruning them in late winter or early spring before growth starts. This is a serious blunder. To prune lilacs before the growing season means that every branch or portion of branch removed represents potential flowers. Lilacs should be pruned only in summer after the final blooms have disappeared.

Lilacs are commonly attacked by scales, especially by San Jose scales. Therefore, they should be inspected carefully in winter and, if scales are present, they should be sprayed before buds begin to open, preferably on a mild day in February when the temperature is well above freezing. One of the reliable commercial oil sprays may be used according to the manufacturer's directions on the container or lime-sulphur is effective at the rate of 1 part concentrate with 7 parts water. It is necessary, of course, to coat the scales liberally to cause death.

Two forms of blight attack lilacs, one of which is common to rhododendrons. For this reason it is not advisable to grow lilacs and rhododendrons near each other. Control lies almost entirely in H-F measures. Pruning should aim to keep the top open for free circulation of air. As soon as new shoots show evidence of infection they should be cut out and burned. In addition all lilacs should be sprayed with Bordeaux mixture when the leaves are just beginning to open and again when all the foliage is open and exposed.

Occasionally mildew infects lilacs in late summer. And while the grayish growth seems to cause little damage, it may be cured by dusting with superfine sulphur or spraying with Bordeaux mixture. Too, all lilac leaves should be gathered and burned or turned under deeply before winter for reasons of general safety. Under the heading of care may be mentioned the daily removal of faded flowers during the blooming season. Like many other ornamentals, lilacs will flower over a longer period if seed formation is prevented by removing faded flowers.

Suckers should be cut out whenever they form except where one or more of the stronger is needed for replacement of main limbs. Summer pruning consists chiefly of removing all dead or otherwise defective wood, thinning the top to admit air and sunlight, and keeping the plan within desired bounds of size and shape.

Lilacs respond liberally to irrigation in dry weather, particularly if drought comes just before or during the blooming period. Soaking the soil once or twice a week to a depth of a foot or more is recommended.

Feeding in early spring with well rotted manure spread into the surrounding soil and the addition of some 6-8-6 or 5-10-5 fertilizer is beneficial to keep the shrubs vigorous. Lilacs are heavy feeders and should not be grown near large trees whose roots will rob them of moisture and plant foods.

Pa. To Have "Little Hoover Commission"

Philadelphia, Feb. 28 (AP) — A five-man commission will begin surveying ways and means of reorganizing the state government within the next month.

That was disclosed Tuesday by Gov. John S. Pine as he announced appointment of Francis J. Chesterman, retired president of the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania, to head of the commission. The appointment was made in a speech before the 43rd annual dinner meeting of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' association.

Pine said the other four members of the "little Hoover" commission would be chosen after he had had a chance to confer with Chesterman, probably later this week. The actual work of the group, he added, would get underway within 30 days.

ULTRA-MODERN 5-STORY HOME FOR UN OPENS

United Nations, N. Y., Feb. 28 (AP)—The United Nations Wednesday opened its new five-story conference building, whose unique council chambers may soon rival the skyscraper Secretariat building as a conversation piece.

The 12-nation trusteeship council drew the distinction of being the first U. N. body to meet in the new structure. On parade was its orthodox chamber, which one delegate dubbed a "playroom for the monkeys."

The chambers to be occupied by the committees of the general assembly, as well as those of the security council and the economic and social council, are a bit less jolting, but they too represent the last word in modernity.

Striped Carpets
The most unusual features of the trusteeship council chamber are multi-colored lattice work suspended from the ceiling and a carpet with bright multi-colored stripes.

All three main council chambers open onto a broad promenade overlooking the East river. They have all the latest technical facilities, including simultaneous interpretation equipment, motion picture projection booths, and booths for press, radio and television reporters.

In addition to the meeting rooms, the new building contains two delegates' lounges, a cafeteria, a delegates' restaurant, two small dining rooms for private parties, several radio studios and control rooms, a recording room and a large printing and reproduction section for turning out documents.

The show place of the building is the main delegates' lounge—200 feet long, 50 feet wide and 24 feet high. Over the bar of Cuban mahogany, there is a large relief map of the world also made of Cuban mahogany, superimposed on Canadian ash.

The completion of the conference building leaves only the general assembly building still under construction. This will be finished by late summer, U. N. officials say.

The opening of the new building also opens the permanent U. N. headquarters for the first time to full-scale tourist visits.

WORLD IS BETTER

New York, Feb. 27 (AP)—Trygve Lie, secretary general of the United Nations, said today he believes the international situation is a little better than it was a year ago.

"You can't put your finger on any specific item, but I think things are better," he told newsmen at Idlewild airport as he arrived from Oslo. "I think the general tension has decreased a little."

Some of the latest walkie-talkie radios that both send and receive are about the size of a loaf of bread and weigh about six and a half pounds, including batteries.

PARK SERVICE IS PROTECTING WILD ANIMALS

Washington, Feb. 28 (AP)—The national park service is asking tourists and campers to protect themselves and the wild animals in national parks by leaving the animals completely alone.

For the first time, it will be against regulations to feed, touch, tease or molest any deer, moose, buffalo or bison, bighorn or mountain sheep, elk or antelope.

And the long-standing prohibition against having anything to do with bears will continue in effect.

Last year more than 36½ million persons visited national parks and 40 million are expected this season.

The serious injury of a 10-year-old girl by a deer in the Yosemite National Park last summer probably provided the impetus for keeping animals and visitors apart, park service spokesmen said.

The little girl was in a group watching some mild deer. She walked up to one and rubbed its head. Its antlers were "in the velvet" just starting to grow, and at that time they are very sensitive to pain.

Without warning the deer lashed at the child, cutting her eye with a hoof. She was badly cut but did not lose the sight of the injured eye.

Officials also recalled that about 10 years ago a buck deer turned by park service employees in Mount Rainier National Park for some unknown reason attacked and seriously injured a child.

885 In 20 Years

Park service records list no deaths from attacks by deer, moose, buffalo, bighorn or elk or antelope but one woman was fatally injured by a bear at Old Faithful in Yellowstone National Park in 1942.

In 20 years—1931 through 1950—885 persons are listed as injured by bears in Yellowstone. There were 1,761 cases of property damage by bears recorded, and 524 bears were killed because they had become dangerous or were classified as nuisances.

And in recent years in Yellowstone and other parks many traffic accidents have occurred, the park service said, because motorists stop on highways and feed bear in violation of the regulations. Parking cars on the highway, it explained, causes congestion and creates a traffic hazard.

Officials point out that "animals spoiled by people feeding them and becoming unduly familiar with them may appear to have become tame when in reality they are still basically wary, wild animals ready to turn on their benefactors at any moment." And the feeding of such animals is definitely harmful to them, they add, whether it is done purposely or by disposing of garbage where the animals can get it.

Many householders buy commercial repellents to keep deer away from their shrubbery in areas where deer are protected closely.

Pa. Jobless Pay Fund Is Spiraling

Harrisburg, Feb. 28 (AP)—Pennsylvania's big jobless pay fund is spiraling toward the $600 million dollar mark, assuring continued low contribution rates this year for nearly 185,000 employers.

The state bureau of employment and unemployment compensation disclosed today that the fund currently stands at $599,774,878 or about 60 millions ahead of last year.

Contribution rates for most employers last year averaged about one per cent. Bureau sources expressed the belief the rate this year, not yet calculated, will be the same as last year or even lower.

The lowest contribution rate in the 14-year history of the jobless pay fund was in 1948 and 1949 when employers paid benefit taxes of only .75 of their payrolls. The fund in 1948 was at an all-time high of $38 million.

Says U.S. Gas, Oil Supplies Mounting

Washington, Feb. 28 (AP)—The National Petroleum Council reported today "available supplies of oil and gas in the United States and the world are greater than ever before and are still increasing rapidly."

The council made public a summary of a 105-page report on petroleum productive capacity prepared at the request of the oil and gas division of the Interior department.

It said the availability of all oils in the United States under maximum efficient rates of production is expected to rise from 7,300,000 barrels daily in January, 1951, to within a range of 7,789,000 to 8,838,000 barrels daily in 1955.

Availability in all foreign areas outside those dominated by Russia was estimated within a range of 6,669,000 to 7,437,000 barrels daily in 1955, compared with an availability of 4,703,000 daily in January, 1951.

YORK SPRINGS SHOWS GAIN IN ANNUAL REPORT

York Springs improved its financial position during 1951, and plans to continue adding to its balance during 1952 according to the annual financial report of the York Springs auditors and the annual budget of the borough both filed Tuesday with the county clerk of courts.

During 1951, according to the financial report filed by Auditors C. Donald LaRue, C. Elmo Smith and Harold W. Fair, the borough increased its balance from $4,853.47 to $5,987.77. At the beginning of 1951 the balance was $296.95 in the general fund, $3,432.92 in the public utility fund, and $1,123.60 in the sinking fund. At the close of 1951 the balances were $749.17 in the general fund, $4,976.97 in the public utility fund and $1,261.63 in the sinking fund.

Income for the year totalled $10,481.66 and expenditures were $3,493.89. Included in the income was $1,187.18 from 1951 taxes, $104.56 prior year's taxes, $960 from fines and forfeitures, $157.80 gifts and grants, $2,933.27 from sale of water, and $108.76 highway aid.

Expenditures included $278.75 for general government, $1,080.92 for highways, $899.22 public utilities, $152 miscellaneous, $153.75 paid for interest on the borough's debt, and $250 paid on the principal of the debt.

The annual budget, filed by borough secretary Lynn E. Smith, shows that the borough expects receipts for the general fund to total $2,335.82 in 1952 while expenditures are expected to total $1,663. Sinking fund receipts are expected to total $1,926.51 and expenditures $985.45. Income in the water fund is expected to total $7,926.99 and expenditures, $2,445.

Gross debt of the borough's water fund at the beginning of 1951 was $6,000, according to the report of the auditors, and the budget. During the year, $250 was paid on the debt, leaving the gross debt $5,750.

Increase Estimates
Borough officials estimated nearly everything just a bit higher for the coming year than was spent during 1951 in making up their budget. As examples, they list $20 for snow removal. Last year the borough actually spent $4 for snow removal. Two hundred fifty dollars is set aside for bituminous road materials, where $141.20 was spent last year. Four hundred sixty-five dollars is allocated for highway uses in the budget and $700 is listed for street lighting.

According to the budget seven mills tax will be levied on the borough to raise the funds for 1952 expenditures.

Boron, the most widely known compound of which is borax, is used with steel as an alloy to make the steel hard.

Britons Rebel At Idea
Of State-owned Pubs

London, Feb. 28 (AP) — No, sir! There won't be any state-owned pubs in Britain. Not while Winston Churchill's Conservatives are in office.

His Conservatives in Commons last night repealed a bill passed by the previous Labor government to set up state pubs in new towns planned to ease city congestion. The vote was 306 to 296. "My constituents dislike the very idea of state beer," cried Conservative Nigel Fisher.

Laborite G. S. Lindgren charged the Conservatives were fronting for brewers who own most of the pubs. The brewery-owned pubs serve only their brand, which, he said, prevents citizens in the new towns "from drinking their own choice of beer."

In the House members and their guests can get just about anything alcoholic they want. The House runs its own bar—a sort of form of public ownership.

U. S. TO SEND AIR
POWER TO EUROPE

Washington, Feb. 28 (AP) — The United States will add no more army divisions to its ground force in Europe this year but will send considerable more air power to help meet the immediate goals set up at the Lisbon session of the North Atlantic Treaty Organizations (NATO).

In outlining the part the United States would have under the NATO master plan, Defense Secretary Lovett also tried to clear up confusion arising from the phrasing of an official summary of the meeting which he attended.

The summary issued at Lisbon produced the widespread impression that by the end of this year the Western European Defense command of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower would have 50 battle-ready divisions or about 20 more than previously expected. Lovett told a Pentagon news conference yesterday that this idea was wrong.

The plan, he said, is to have something more than half of that number combat-ready, their manpower and weapons complete, ready to go into action at an instant's notice. The others would be of the

REPORT FINE IS PLOTTING SHIFT TO TAFT FORCES

Philadelphia, Feb. 28 (AP)—A move "designed to swing the bulk of the 70-member Pennsylvania delegation to the Republican national convention behind the presidential candidacy of Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio" was reported today by the Philadelphia Inquirer.

The newspaper, in a story by political reporter Joseph H. Miller, said the move "was understood to have been initiated last night at a secret dinner conference in New York." Present at the dinner, the newspaper's story continued, were John S. Fine, Pennsylvania's Republican governor; former President Herbert Hoover, and Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

None of the three could be reached immediately for comment.

Fine, who came here Tuesday for the annual Pennsylvania Manufacturers association meeting and dinner—always the occasion for a gathering of top Pennsylvania Republicans—could not be located last night. Sources at Wilkes-Barre said he was not at his home in nearby Nanticoke, and a spokesman at the governor's official residence near Harrisburg declined to comment on Mr. Fine's whereabouts.

Governor Fine has insisted since the GOP presidential campaigning began that he has not made up his mind when he will support. Only last week he told a news conference he would not make a decision until after the state's April 22 primary election in which a presidential preference vote will be cast.

That vote will not be binding on the state's 70 delegates now expected to go to the convention unpledged and uninstructed.

Fine probably will be chairman of the delegation, and Republican leaders agree he will have a powerful voice in the delegation's decision on how to vote.

The conference of the three men was said to have been held in MacArthur's Waldorf-Astoria Towers suite and was understood to have been arranged by the former Pacific commander, whom Fine greatly admires, the Inquirer's story said.

Tokyo, Feb. 28 (AP)—Red reports hint that bubonic plague and cholera may be sweeping North Korea.

The hints were contained in Communist charges that the Allies are using germ warfare in Korea. For four days Red radios in Peiping and Pyongyang have been repeating and elaborating the story.

Construction was started this week on the new addition to the Mennonite church. This structure joins the church and will be used as a Sunday school room.

The Women's Service Guild of the Fairfield Mennonite church met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. B. E. Benner.

Miss Gertrude Cool has returned to York after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cool.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Eppley, York, spent the week-end with Mrs. Eppley's mother, Mrs. Edith Scott. Miss Geraldine Scott returned to York with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Eppley.

The First National bank of Fairfield field has constructed a sound-proof consultation room on the first floor of the building.

Linda Rose Lochbaum, Philadelphia, is visiting at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pecher. Week-end guests at the Pecher home were M. Sgt. and Mrs. Henry Pecher and family, Aberdeen. Mrs. George Pecher has gone to Mississippi to join her husband, Pfc. George Pecher, who is stationed at the Kessler Air Force base.

Mrs. Howard Seifert is confined to her home by illness.

A farewell party was held Monday evening by the members of the ninth grade vocational Home Economics club in honor of Miss Norma Fullmer. The evening was spent in playing games which included a treasure hunt and refreshments were served. Those present were Miss Fullmer, Wilma Bellamy, Shirley Shultz, Louise Shindedecker, Eileen Myers, Norma Whited, Shirley Fleming, Mary Kuykendall, Peggy Johnson and Miss Louise Staub, class advisor.

WHEELCHAIR IS ORDERED BY VFW

A wheelchair has been ordered for community use by the Mason and Dixon Memorial Post No. 6954, Veterans of Foreign Wars, as announced at the second February meeting on Tuesday evening at the post home, West King street. After the chair is received it will be available to the community upon request with a doctor's signature. Commander John R. Bloom presided at the meeting. Clarence L. Schwartz, Jr., was received into the organization. It was announced that the membership now totals 200, an increase of five during 1951.

Commander Bloom announced that the monthly meeting of the 1st District will be held on Sunday, March 16, with the Spring Grove post as host. Nomination of officers will take place at the next meeting on Tuesday, March 11, 7:30 p.m., at the post home. Election of officers will follow on March 25.

Members of Alpha Fire company No. 1 answered a call at 3 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon when a field fire broke out along the Mill road, south of Boyer street, Littlestown, in Germany township. The fire occurred near the dump along that road. Two trucks responded to the call. No damage was reported.

Dolores Rae Reinhold was the leader at the meeting of the Christian Endeavor society of St. Paul's Lutheran church on Sunday evening in the special hall of the church. The proceedings of the meeting were as follows: Call to worship, Evelyn Dickinson; group hymn, accompanied on the piano by Jean Bloch; Scripture lesson read by James Zulick; C. E. pledge repeated in unison; group hymn; discussion of the topic "Christian Citizenship Demands Responsibility," led by Miss Reinhold.

The business session was held in charge of the president, Evelyn Dickinson. Leonard Potter was selected to be the leader for the meeting next Sunday evening and Darla Lemmon for the same session. Susanne and Patricia Long were in charge of the recreation period.

Miss JoAnne Wehler, a student at the State Teachers' college, Indiana, Pa., spent the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin B. Wehler, near town, along the Littlestown-Gettysburg road.

Dinner Cookery

"Fish and Vegetable Cookery" was the subject of discussion at the second February meeting of the Littlestown Homemakers club on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Amos L. Spangler, along the Littlestown-Westminster road. Miss Mary Jane Mickey, Adams county home economics extension representative, explained and demonstrated the preparation of the following items of food: Baked fish with savory stuffing; poached fish and egg and cream sauce; and broccoli. Twelve club members were in attendance. The next meeting will be held Tuesday evening, March 11, at the home of Mrs. George Mayers, Littlestown, R. 2. The topic for discussion will be "Better Lighting."

Letters have been distributed among the students of the local public schools, grades one through twelve, concerning the solicitation for cash donations for the Littlestown high school band uniform fund. Students were asked to give the letters to their family and friends. The letters were issued by the Women's Community club of Littlestown and vicinity, which orig-

Rabies Shots Used In Polio Experiment

Frost, Tex., Feb. 28 (AP) — Seven months ago nearly 400 persons in this small Texas town took five rabies shots each in an experiment to determine whether this would prevent polio.

Since that time no polio case has been reported in Frost. Seven months ago seven of Navarro county's 12 polio cases were in the Frost area.

Reporting this today, doctors who made the experiment were careful not to claim the experiment had yet proved anything. Dr. Herbert E.

inated the uniform fund. A house to house canvass will take place on Friday evening from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. Club members will solicit on the streets where they reside. Families are asked to have their contributions ready when the solicitors call. The total amount in the fund to date is $3,511, leaving a balance of approximately $1,000 needed to purchase 70 uniforms at a cost of approximately $65 each.

Arrives In Tokyo

Sgt. James M. Wehler, who has been stationed at the Westover Air Force base, near Mt. Holyoke, Mass., arrived on Friday to spend a furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin B. Wehler, near town, along the Littlestown-Gettysburg road. Upon conclusion of the furlough on March 5, Sgt. Wehler will report to Camp Stoneman, Calif., to await overseas assignment on the Pacific theater.

Pfc. Charles Jacobs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philbert D. Jacobs, Cemetery street, has arrived in Tokyo, Japan, according to a cablegram recently received by his parents. Pfc. Jacobs enlisted in the paratroopers in June, 1951, and completed his basic training at Indiantown Gap. He sailed from Seattle, Wash., on Feb. 6 and arrived in Tokyo two weeks later.

Mrs. Harry Ross, Sparrows Point, Md., spent Monday with her brother-in-law and sister Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rinehart, Littlestown.

Hipps of Waco first advanced the idea, saying only that "people who have received rabies shots generally don't have polio."

Dr. Hipps said: "We'll have more definite information on its success after about six months. By September we should know if our tests helped. Frost has a history which usually results in polio cases during August and September. If none occur this year we can be led to believe the experiment was worthwhile."

About 100 people attended the card party held Tuesday in the Fire hall for the Little League baseball team which is being sponsored by the local Lions club. Door prize was won by Mrs. Guy Baker and the first prize in "500" was awarded to Mrs. Edwin Chrismer. Net proceeds amounted to about $75.
